↑ Apostles' Creed

☩: I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come again to judge
the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting.
Amen.

Holy Communion – All baptized Christians who seek a taste of the new and forgiven life in Jesus Christ are welcome to receive the sacraments. We confess and believe that Christ in his risen form is truly present in the Sacrament of bread and wine and that by sharing in this meal, we share in Christ's resurrection.

The ministration of the Sacrament will take place in the pews with individual elements. These are available as you enter; if you missed picking one up and need one, please signal an usher now with a raised hand.

When invited to commune, peel off the bottom tab to eat the bread; peel off the top tab to drink the wine. The waste can go in the paper bag found in each pew.

↑ Invitation to the Table

Receive the food of forgiveness.

Post Communion Prayer

P: Jesus, Bread of life,
we have received from your presence in, with and under

In Jesus' name we pray.

G: Amen.

Postlude

*Prelude in G major (“Gigue”)
J.S. Bach? (1685–1750)*

About today’s music

Did Johann Sebastian Bach write the organ fugue heard for today’s postlude? For many years, scholars thought he probably didn’t write the so-called “Gigue” fugue in G major (there’s no surviving autograph manuscript, it’s stylistically rather unique for Bach, and I once heard that Bach would have written this piece when he was only about eighteen). Still, some newer scholarship concludes that Bach is, in fact, the composer. I’ve always imagined a virtuosic young Johann penning and playing this dance-like piece. I first heard it on a TV program when I was a small boy – which helped inspire my interest in the pipe organ – so this piece has a special place for me. Its joyful character seems especially appropriate as we return to in-person worship.
