☩: I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.

On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come again to judge
the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

as we ourselves forgive everyone indebted to us.

Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,

now and forever.

Amen.

Holy Communion – All baptized Christians who seek a taste of the new and forgiven life in Jesus Christ are welcome to receive the sacraments.

We confess and believe that Christ in his risen form is truly present in the Sacrament of bread and wine and that by sharing in this meal, we share in Christ's resurrection.

The ministration of the Sacrament will take place in the pews with individual elements. These are available as you enter; if you missed picking one up and need one, please signal an usher now with a raised hand.

When invited to commune, peel off the bottom tab to eat the bread; peel off the top tab to drink the wine. The waste can go in the paper bag found in each pew.

↑ Invitation to the Table

P: Receive the bread of life.

Christ is among us.

Agnus Dei

↑ Annual Congregational Meeting Opening Liturgy

P: Today our congregation gathers in prayer and hope to begin another year of ministry.
We bring with us the memory of a year like no other,
even as we move into a future that we cannot yet imagine.
Yet even now, as in every age, God is our refuge and strength.
In times of plenty and want, in times of conflict and peace,
in times of growing and pruning, we remember:

C: God has called us for such a time as this.

P: Let us pray: Grace our meeting, O God, with the gift of your Holy Spirit: the Spirit who has guided the church from the beginning, the Spirit of our risen Lord Jesus, the Spirit who sends us as healers and restorers of your beloved world.
You are the source of our life together.
and fill us with hope for the possibilities that lie ahead.
You are the rock and cornerstone.

C: In Jesus name, Amen.

↑ Dismissal

A: Go in peace. Serve the Lord.

G: Thanks be to God.

Please remain seated until the ushers dismiss you from your pew, and maintain social distancing as we exit. On your way out, put your bulletin back in the baskets on the table if you do not want to take it with you. Offerings may be put in the offering plate as you exit. If you wish to greet Pastor Dan following the service, he will be standing under the breezeway outside to allow greater space for those who need to leave after the service. You may remain in fellowship with one another as long as you like; please respect others' need for social distancing.

For those remaining for our Annual Congregational Meeting, we will take a short break after the service. There will be light refreshments outside under the breezeway; please stay outside while you eat or drink. We hope to begin the meeting at 11:45.

Postlude

*Chorale variations on IN DIR IST FREUDE (ELW 867)
J. S. Bach (1685–1750)*

About today's music

Johann Pachelbel (1653–1706) is perhaps best known for the famous “Canon in D.” But he also composed much music for organ, including hymn-based music. Today's prelude includes part of his partita (a collection of short variations) based on the chorale melody, WAS GOTT TUT, DAS IST WOHLGETAN. The chorale melody takes its name from the hymn associated with it, translated as “What God Ordains Is Always Good.” Composer K. Lee Scott (b. 1950) ingeniously adapts portions of Pachelbel's partita as the accompaniment for a paraphrase of Psalm 89 (heard at today's 10:30 service). Today's postlude is a short, sprightly setting of IN DIR IST FREUDE (today's hymn of the day, “In Thee Is Gladness,” ELW 867) by J.S. Bach (1685–1750). Bach captures a sense of joyful, perpetual motion, with flourishes that seem to dance around the chorale melody. — Cantor Kyle
