↑ Apostles' Creed

☩: I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.

On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge
the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting.
Amen.

Prayers of the Church

A: . . . Lord, in your mercy,

☩: hear our prayer.

Holy Communion – All baptized Christians who seek a taste of the new and forgiven life in Jesus Christ are welcome to receive the sacrament. We confess and believe that Christ in his risen form is truly present in the Sacrament of Bread and Wine and that by sharing in this meal, we share in Christ’s risen presence among us.

The ministration of the Sacrament is given in two ways:

In the pew:

You may commune in the pews with individual elements. These are available in the narthex as you enter.

When invited to commune, peel off the bottom tab to eat the bread; peel off the top tab to drink the wine. The waste can go in the paper bag found in each pew.

By intinction:

When prompted by the ushers, come down the center aisle to kneel at the railing; please sanitize your hands. Receive a wafer in your hands. Dip it in a chalice, either wine or grape juice, before partaking. Use the outside aisle to return to your seat.

If you prefer to receive only bread, be assured that you are receiving the full presence of God.

↑ The Great Thanksgiving

The musical score is written in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. It consists of four staves of music. The first staff is for the Presider and Congregation, with lyrics: "The Lord be with you. And al-so with you." The second staff is for the Presider and Congregation, with lyrics: "Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord." The third staff is for the Presider and Congregation, with lyrics: "Let us give thanks to the Lord our God. It is". The fourth staff is for the Presider and Congregation, with lyrics: "right to give God thanks and praise." The lyrics are centered under the notes.

P: It is our duty and delight . . .
. . . and join their unending hymn:

Hermann Schroeder (1904–1984)

Please note that the postlude may feature the full organ.

Please maintain social distancing as we exit. On your way out, put your bulletin back in the baskets on the table if you do not want to take it with you. Offerings may be put in the offering plate as you exit. You may remain in fellowship with one another as long as you like.

About Today's Music

A Leise is a German sacred song from the Middle Ages ending in kyrieleis, a shortened form of kyrie eleison ("Lord, have mercy"). Today's Hymn of the Day is Martin Luther's extension of a Leise to the Holy Spirit that dates to the 13th century or earlier. Luther added three stanzas of his own, and all were published together in 1524 in the first Lutheran hymnal, Geistliche Gesangbüchlein (Little Book of Sacred Songs). The anonymous tune, NUN BITTEN WIR, is named for the opening words in German and is probably as old as the first stanza. Today's prelude features two contemplative Baroque settings of this melody composed by significant North German Lutheran organists. The early Baroque and middle Baroque are represented by Hamburg's Heinrich Scheidemann (1595–1663) and Lüneburg's Georg Böhm (1661–1733), respectively. Both pieces employ the ornamented organ chorale technique, using the pre-existing melody as a basis for creative embellishment. For the postlude, we fast-forward to the 20th century and southwestern Germany for Roman Catholic organist and composer Hermann Schroeder's (1904–1984) festive piece, published in 1933.
