Holy Communion – All baptized Christians who seek a taste of the new and forgiven life in Jesus Christ are welcome to receive the sacrament. We confess and believe that Christ in his risen form is truly present in the Sacrament of Bread and Wine and that by sharing in this meal, we share in Christ’s risen presence among us.

The ministration of the Sacrament is given in two ways:

In the pew:

You may commune in the pews with individual elements. These are available in the narthex as you enter.

When invited to commune, peel off the bottom tab to eat the bread; peel off the top tab to drink the wine. The waste can go in the paper bag found in each pew.

By intinction:

When prompted by the ushers, come down the center aisle to kneel at the railing; please sanitize your hands.

Receive a wafer in your hands. Dip it in a chalice, either wine or grape juice, before partaking. Use the outside aisle to return to your seat.

↑ The Great Thanksgiving

P: The Lord be with you.

C: And also with you.

JANUARY FORUM SERIES – Revisiting the Stars

Please join us in the Conference Room from 9–10 AM each Sunday. Forum can also be attended via Zoom; look for the link in church emails or on our website’s FORUMS page.

January 8: Matt Boysen kicks off our three-part series with an update on space exploration. He will share with us some of the latest advances in the field since he first presented on the topic as part of our series on “Astrotheology” back in 2018. Matt Boysen is Lead Systems Engineer of Spaceflight Industries, where he works on aircraft and space vehicle applications.

January 15: Scripture and the Stars: What does the Bible say about the cosmos, the stars, and the beings who (presumably) live among them? Pastor Dan will lead this interactive discussion on the various cosmologies we find tucked away in the Old and New Testaments, several of which may surprise you.

January 22: Mary-Jane Rubenstein will be reading and discussing some of the key passages from her new book Astrotopia: The Dangerous Religion of the Corporate Space Race. She will argue that the exploration and possible inhabitation of outer space should not be left to profiteers and messianic billionaires. Rather than seeking a way for the universe to belong to us, we should be seeking ways we might belong to the universe.
