Please fill out a card from the pew rack if you are visiting us today, if you have a prayer request, if you wish to receive our newsletter, or if you wish the pastor to contact you. Simply place the card in the offering plate as you exit.

Silencing your cell phone is a good gift you can give to your fellow worshipers.

Children are always welcome in worship! In the narthex you will find “Quiet Bags” with books and toys, or “Doodle Bags” with paper and markers for children to use.

Child Care is available on the second floor, which can be accessed by the elevator or the two stairways. An usher can assist you. The narthex area is also available for you if your child needs a break from the service. Audio from worship can be heard there.

Hearing Assisted Radio Transmitters are available. Please ask an usher for assistance.

G: Praise to you, O Christ.

↑Thanksgiving for the Word

A: Let us pray.

Praise and thanks to you, holy God, for by your Word you made all things: you spoke light into darkness, called forth beauty from chaos, and brought life into being. For your Word of life, O God,

G: we give you thanks and praise.

A: By your Word you called your people Israel to tell of your wonderful gifts: freedom from captivity, water on the desert journey, a pathway home from exile, wisdom for life with you. For your Word of life, O God,

G: we give you thanks and praise.

A: Through Jesus, your Word made flesh, you speak to us and call us to witness: forgiveness through the cross, life to those entombed by death, the way of your self-giving love. For your Word of life, O God,

G: we give you thanks and praise.

A: O God of justice and love, we give thanks to you that you illumine our way through life with your Word. Give us the light we need and awaken us to the needs of others, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory forever.

A: Amen.

Please be seated for the Hymn of the Day and the Hymn Sing.

Hymn Sing

The Cantor will invite the congregation to call out a hymn number from the red hymnal that they would like to sing. We will likely sing approximately 3 hymns; the Cantor will announce the stanzas of each hymn to be sung.

↑ Apostles' Creed

A: With the whole church, let us confess our faith in the words of the Apostles' Creed:

C: I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ,
God's only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church, the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.
Amen.

The Apostles' Creed emphasizes the full humanity of Christ (e.g., he was born, suffered, and died) in response to one of the earliest heresies, namely, the view that Christ only "appeared" to be human. Why? Detractors believed that the Spirit of God, which is good, could not dwell in a material or physical body, which is evil. When we profess the Apostles' Creed, following Jewish tradition, we insist otherwise. The world God made is good! With great joy and without contradiction, therefore, we can say with John 1:14 that "the Word became flesh and dwelled among us." — Pastor Dan

Prayers of the Church (please be seated or kneel)

A: . . . God, in your mercy.

C: Hear our prayer.

↑ Sharing of Peace

A: The peace of Christ be with you always.

C: And also with you.

↑ Lord's Prayer

A: Gathered into one by the Holy Spirit, let us pray as Jesus taught us.

C: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins

as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and forever.

Amen.

Postlude

Finale Jubilante

Healey Willan (1880-1968)

About Today's Music

"Lift Every Voice and Sing" (ELW 841), known for decades in the U.S. as the Black National Anthem, features words by James W. Johnson (1871–1938) and music by his brother, J. Rosamund Johnson (1873–1954). Written at the turn of the 20th century to honor Abraham Lincoln and the Emancipation Proclamation, it was premiered by a choir of schoolchildren at the all-Black Stanton School in Jacksonville Florida on Lincoln's birthday, February 12, 1900. Hymnologist Paul Westermeyer notes: "It is poetry – closer to high-art poetry than to hymnic poetry – that celebrates liberty without neglecting the reality of the 'stony road' and the 'blood of the slaughtered.' Remarkably, however, it moves with hope through 'silent tears' without the fury that could easily be expected." Although the complex melody lends itself to a practiced choir or soloist, "Lift Every Voice and Sing" transcended its choral origins to become a rallying cry of the Civil Rights era of the 1950s and 1960s and, ultimately, a cherished fixture of American communal song.
