Please fill out a card from the pew rack if you are visiting us today, if you have a prayer request, if you wish to receive our newsletter, or if you wish the pastor to contact you. Simply place the card in the offering plate as you exit.

Silencing your cell phone is a good gift you can give to your fellow worshipers.

Children are always welcome in worship! In the narthex you will find “Quiet Bags” with books and toys, or “Doodle Bags” with paper and markers for children to use.

Child Care is available on the second floor, which can be accessed by the elevator or the two stairways. An usher can assist you. The narthex area is also available for you if your child needs a break from the service. Audio from worship can be heard there.

↑ Apostles' Creed

☩: I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ,
God's only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church, the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.
Amen.

The Apostles' Creed emphasizes the full humanity of Christ (e.g., he was born, suffered, and died) in response to one of the earliest heresies, namely, the view that Christ only "appeared" to be human. Why? Detractors believed that the Spirit of God, which is good, could not dwell in a material or physical body, which is evil. When we profess the Apostles' Creed, following Jewish tradition, we insist otherwise. The world God made is good! With great joy and without contradiction, therefore, we can say with John 1:14 that "the Word became flesh and dwelled among us." — Pastor Dan

Prayers of the Church (please be seated or kneel)

A: . . . Lord, in your mercy.

☩: Hear our prayer.

↑ Sharing of Peace

P: The peace of Christ be with you always.

☩: And also with you.

↑ The Great Thanksgiving

☐: It is indeed right, our duty and our joy . . .
... praise your name and join their unending hymn:

↑ Words of Institution

↑ Lord's Prayer

P: As we prepare our hearts for this holy meal, let us pray the prayer Jesus taught us:

G: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen.

↑ Invitation to the Table

P: Come and taste the joy of God!

Holy Communion – All people who seek a taste of the new and forgiven life in Jesus Christ are welcome to receive the sacrament. We confess and believe that Christ, who fills all things, comes to us in a special way through the Sacrament of Bread and Wine and that by sharing in this meal, we share in Christ's real presence among us.

The ministration of the Sacrament is given in two ways:

In the pew:

You may commune in the pews with individual elements. These are available in the narthex as you enter.

When invited to commune, peel off the bottom tab to eat the bread; peel off the top tab to drink the wine. The waste can go in the paper bag found in each pew.

By intinction:

When prompted by the ushers, come down the center aisle to kneel at the railing; please sanitize your hands.

Receive a wafer in your hands. Dip it in a chalice, either wine or grape juice, before partaking. Use the outside aisle to return to your seat.

Agnus Dei

1 O Lamb of God, you bear the sin of all the world a - way;
2 O Lamb of God, you bear the sin of all the world a - way;
3 O Lamb of God, you bear the sin of all the world a - way;

you suf-fered death our lives to save: have mer-cy now, we pray.
you set us free from guilt and grave: have mer-cy now, we pray.
e - ter-nal peace with God you made: give us your peace, we pray.

Distribution Hymn

Blessed Assurance
ELW 638

↑ Post-Communion Prayer

P: Gracious God,
in you we live and move and have our being.
With your word and this meal of grace,
you have nourished our life together and renewed us for life in the world.
Strengthen us to show your love and serve others in Jesus' name.

C: Amen.
