There Is a Balm in Gilead

To introduce the hymn, the refrain is sung by a leader.

ELW 614

Then all repeat the refrain and sing the hymn in its entirety.

You are invited to sing harmony or melody.

↑ Apostles' Creed

☩: I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ,
God's only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church, the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.
Amen.

The Apostles' Creed emphasizes the full humanity of Christ (e.g., he was born, suffered, and died) in response to one of the earliest heresies, namely, the view that Christ only "appeared" to be human. Why? Detractors believed that the Spirit of God, which is good, could not dwell in a material or physical body, which is evil. When we profess the Apostles' Creed, following Jewish tradition, we insist otherwise. The world God made is good! With great joy and without contradiction, therefore, we can say with John 1:14 that "the Word became flesh and dwelled among us." — Pastor Dan

↑ Words of Institution

↑ Lord's Prayer

P: As we prepare our hearts for this holy meal,
let us pray the prayer Jesus taught us:

G: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins

as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,

now and forever. Amen.

Invitation to the Table

P: Come and taste the joy of God!

Holy Communion – All people who seek a taste of the new and forgiven life in Jesus Christ are welcome to receive the sacrament. We confess and believe that Christ, who fills all things, comes to us in a special way through the Sacrament of Bread and Wine and that by sharing in this meal, we share in Christ's real presence among us.

The ministration of the Sacrament is given in two ways:

In the pew:

You may commune in the pews with individual elements. These are available in the narthex as you enter.

When invited to commune, peel off the bottom tab to eat the bread; peel off the top tab to drink the wine. The waste can go in the paper bag found in each pew.

By intinction:

When prompted by the ushers, come down the center aisle to kneel at the railing; please sanitize your hands.

Receive a wafer in your hands. Dip it in a chalice, either wine or grape juice, before partaking. Use the outside aisle to return to your seat.

Agnus Dei

1 O Lamb of God, you bear the sin of all the world a - way;
2 O Lamb of God, you bear the sin of all the world a - way;
3 O Lamb of God, you bear the sin of all the world a - way;

you suf-fered death our lives to save: have mer-cy now, we pray.
you set us free from guilt and grave: have mer-cy now, we pray.
e - ter-nal peace with God you made: give us your peace, we pray.

Distribution Hymn

Postlude

Allegro moderato maestoso
Felix Mendelssohn-Bartholdy (1809–1847)

About Today's Music

Today's Hymn of the Day, "There Is a Balm in Gilead" (ELW 614), was one of the selections called out at our impromptu hymn sing on July 2. We sing this cherished spiritual again today in connection with this morning's reading from Matthew 15, where Jesus provides healing in response to a faith-filled mother's plea. Hymnologist Paul Westermeyer writes, "'Balm of Gilead' was an aromatic medicinal ointment. Jeremiah 8:22 asks, 'Is there no balm in Gilead?' The refrain of this African American spiritual answers the question: 'There is a balm in Gilead.' At first blush that seems like a strange answer, because the stanzas seem unconnected to it, until you realize that they tell you where the balm is located. It is not in Gilead or any place in this world.... No, it is the Holy Spirit who 'revives my soul,' and it is Jesus who 'is your friend' and 'died for all.' This means that if you know where hope is found – namely, in God – the balm is paradoxically precisely in Gilead and in every other place in this world."

POP-UP WORK PARTY IN THE SANCTUARY NEXT WEEK! Can you help after worship on August 27? The Worship and Music Committee is testing a new seating arrangement for our 8 AM service, which resumes September 10. During August, about 10-20 worshippers have gathered on Wednesdays for Holden Evening Prayer. Each week, a more intimate gathering space was arranged at the back of the nave around the baptismal font, and then pews and chairs were reset for Sunday worship. Inspired by the positive reaction to the Wednesday evening seating arrangement, we will test a similar setup for our 8 AM Sunday services: On the pulpit side of the nave only, several pews at the back will be angled toward the font (these pews will remain in that formation and won't be moved between services). When we resume 8 AM services, the readings, sermon, and prayers will be led near the base of the rear gallery platform – facing the angled pews, with the Holy Spirit window as a beautiful backdrop. If you can lend a hand, please stay after the 10 a.m. service on August 27 to help move the pews. The fall worship schedule resumes Sunday, September 10 with worship at 8 AM and 10:30 AM and forum at 9 AM.
