During the cold snap in January, I realized that the hummingbird food had frozen again. I went outside to replace it and noticed a hummingbird just sitting, seemingly frozen, perched on one of the little prongs of the feeder. Now, usually the hummingbirds I feed are fierce. They swirl around my head demanding new syrup and for me to move out of their way. They exert a force that, if bigger, would be scary. But this one did nothing as I moved closer.

I stood there. Not sure what to do. Do I shoo it away? Do I simply hope it moves when I reach out? Do I come back later hoping this bird is still alive?

As in most things we do these days, I decided to research online. According to the website Science, hummingbirds may appear “frozen” on a feeder, but they’re using torpor to conserve energy. This article urges one to not disturb them as this is a natural behavior and allows them to save their energy.

With this, I decided to wait until the hummingbird flew off before replacing the feeder with fresh syrup (which happened about a half hour later).

So why tell you this small story of hummingbirds and me? I think there is some overlap between energy and torpor and what this all might mean for us as church together.

While not a perfect analogy, sometimes we can act like hummingbirds swirling and swooping, using lots of energy to do things. Sometimes we think that if we aren’t doing activities, or if other people aren’t doing activities, then we are failing as a church. It reminds me of a pastor saying to me at an event for Rostered Ministers, “Bishop, I feel that I have to attend everything that is planned. But, may I ask, is everything planned necessary?”

Perhaps we use energy up when it is not necessary.

Perhaps, like the hummingbird, we also need a time of torpor. Perhaps we need a “time out” time or a reflection time or a meditative time or just a time to inhale and exhale without worrying about the next event or program or activity. As theologian Richard Rohr puts it when describing centering prayer, “Prayer is simply sitting in silence, open to God’s love and your love for God. This prayer is beyond thoughts, emotions, or sensations.”

Dear Beloveds in Christ, Lent is here. As we plan and attend the meaningful worship and fellowship that we all love during the season of Lent, I pray that in worship and in other ways you can find the space and openness to embrace the wonder of the Spirit.

For we can learn from hummingbirds – not that we are to eat one and a half to three times our body weight every day like a hummingbird – but instead, we are called to have a flow between busyness and stillness, action and reflection, hustling and torpor, acts and prayer.

I pray that as we follow Jesus, as we live in Jesus’ love, as we contemplate his words and actions, we may do the same.

In the morning, while it was still very dark, he got up and went out to a deserted place, and there he prayed.

Mark 1:35

FROM THE CANTOR

“Did you give up anything for Lent?”

If you have a friend who attends a liturgical church (or who knows that you attend a liturgical church) you may have fielded this question a time or two recently. Chocolate? Pizza? Facebook? As for me, I’ve given up... none of the above!

But there is, in fact, something we’ve all given up... on Sunday mornings.

One of our traditions as Lutheran Christians—alongside many other denominations—is to forego the word alleluia during Lent. The word in its Hebrew form is hallelujah, or “praise Yah(weh).” The word doesn’t translate into English well; one source suggests that the word encompasses jubilant song and a sort of “joyful boasting” in God. As a sign of humility before God and austerity during the Lenten season of repentance, we avoid this celebratory word until it returns on Easter.

In addition to alleluia, did you know most church organists give up something else during Lent for worship? We organists typically avoid the most celebratory organ stops, such as the trumpets and the festive “mixture” stops that add a shimmer to the organ’s sound. You might have noticed simpler, more introspective postludes and other music. That’s an intentional aural cue as we make our Lenten journey to the cross on Good Friday.

Of course, singing and speaking “alleluia” and also more festive sounds from the organ will return on Easter!

As we move through Lent toward our Easter celebration, we are blessed to have families participating in music for Sunday worship. In the past, I’ve suggested especially appropriate Sundays to families, but with busy schedules it’s been challenging for calendars to align. So, I decided to take an opposite approach instead—asking families when they/their kids/youth have availability. I’m delighted that members of the Patten and Reese/Del Vento families will be serving in music on March 17, March 24 (Palm Sunday) and/or March 31 (Easter) at the 10:30 services, including singing, ringing bells, and/or playing instruments. And if you/your kids/youth would like to get involved in the future, please do reach out to me, especially if you didn’t receive an email from me and would like to be in the loop.

Finally, here’s something musical that we “take on” rather than “give up” at QALC during Lent—specifically on Palm Sunday. After gathering in the courtyard before the service and hearing the gospel reading about Jesus’s entry into Jerusalem, kids and adults are invited to ring handbells freely as the congregation moves from the courtyard to the nave while singing “All Glory, Laud and Honor.” Paralleling the gospel narrative, this offers a moment of celebration (which the handbells help emphasize) before we turn toward the rest of Holy Week. I hope you can be part of this tradition (ringing, singing, or both!) as we symbolically join with the hopeful crowds at Jesus’s triumphal entry into Jerusalem.

I’m looking forward to sharing the reminder of our Lenten contemplation and the joy of Easter Sunday with you. See you in church!

LENTEN WORSHIP

Lenten Wednesdays: Noon Chapel Worship

All are invited to our mid-week, mid-day worship.

Take the opportunity to “pivot,” reflect, and reset each week in Lent.

Lenten Wednesdays: Supper, Discussion, And Compline

THE END OF LIFE: A Multi-Faith Conversation

What is your attitude toward the end of life? How do you approach it? How does your faith inform your perspective, and what about the faith of our neighbors?

This series has been interesting and well-attended. Offered jointly with Ballard First Lutheran (BFL), members of both churches are invited to attend; the locations alternate. Please join us! All are welcome.

The evening begins with a light soup supper at 6:00 PM, followed by a presentation and discussion from 6:30 to 7:15 PM, and ending with an evening compline service.

REMAINING SCHEDULE:

3/13 - Roxanne Murphy, Senior Manager of Tribal Relations for the Port of Seattle offers a Tribal Perspective on the End of Life (@ BFL)

3/20 - Roundtable Discussion (@ QALC)

Lenten Thursdays, 2/15 – 3/21 “Lent w/Baldwin & Bonhoeffer”

Pastor Dan co-leads this class with Rev. Dr. Edward Donaldson III for the Synod’s LiVE Project series, six Thursday evenings in Lent, online at 7:00 PM.

This course on the faith perspectives of Dietrich Bonhoeffer and James Baldwin is FREE to the QALC community. You may still register using the promo code LIVEBUNDLE2023

HOLY WEEK AND EASTER WORSHIP

PALM SUNDAY, March 24 • 8:00 AM & 10:30 AM

GOOD FRIDAY, March 29 • 7:30 PM

EASTER: Sunday, March 31 • 8:00 AM & 10:30 AM

We hope you can join us for EASTER BREAKFAST, 9–10 AM in the Fellowship Hall! Our Men’s Group will cook pancakes and meat; everyone else please contribute your favorite egg dish, baked item, or fruit dish. If possible, label your dish —“gluten free,” “nut-free,” “contains dairy,” “vegan,” etc. Sign up in the narthex to volunteer to help set up, provide food, serve tables, or clean up. We are grateful to the Men’s Ministry for offering to set up on Saturday, and to host and make pancakes Sunday!

EASTER EGG HUNT: With help from our Sunday childcare workers Chelsey and Ylliam, an Easter egg hunt will start at 9:30 on Easter morning.

EASTER FLORAL CROSS: Once again, we will have an outdoor floral cross on Easter morning. Please add one or more flowers to the wire frame of the cross as you enter or exit the building. Some flowers will be provided there as well, if you are not able to bring any.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Garden Work Party

We are scheduling a garden work-party on Tuesday, March 19 from approximately 10 AM – 1 PM. Even if you can only come for 1 or 2 hours, please do, and bring a friend! We will be pruning roses, removing weeds/grass/dead plants and replenishing many of the containers with spring color. All ages, with any level of experience, are welcome!

—Connie Wurm

March 24 Forum to Discuss Capital Projects:

As we are considering whether to launch a capital campaign, we are looking for your feedback. The campaign would focus on raising money for the landscaping project and funds to replace about half of the roof, which is near the end of its expected lifespan. Please join QALC Council member Mark Dibble on Sunday, 3/24 from 9:00 to 10:00 AM in the Conference Room to share your input. We are listening and collecting these thoughts for the Council.

Get Free Tax Help at AARP Tax-Aide Locations

This popular program operated here at QALC when its locations closed during the pandemic, but has now moved back to library locations. A flyer with details for ten locations is posted on our narthex bulletin board, or search online for “AARP Foundation Tax-Aide Site Locator” to find a location near you.

Rides to Church Available

Do you, or someone you know, need a ride to church? Call the church office by noon on the Thursday before to make the request. Barb will send an email out to the congregation with the subject line “RIDES REQUESTED,” including a link to the riders’ contact info in Sign-Up Genius.

Are you available to give a ride? This is a volunteer opportunity that requires no commitment beyond a one-Sunday-at-a-time response. Volunteer drivers use the emailed link to access the Sign-Up Genius page; sign up, and use the information there to contact the rider directly to make arrangements for that Sunday.

VISIT HOLDEN

Holden Village is a remote wilderness community, rooted in the Lutheran tradition, that welcomes all people into the North Cascade Mountains, above Lake Chelan, Washington.

PLAN YOUR STAY

We look forward to inviting you into the wilderness this summer for rest, rejuvenation, and connection. Summer programs will take place June 9 – August 31, 2024.

Registration is now open for summer visits!

MEN'S MINISTRY

Men's Group, Spring 2024

The Men's Group will host the Easter Breakfast Sunday, March 31 (setup is on Saturday morning, March 30). Please mark your calendars.

We will assemble LWR kits—Personal Care & School Kits—on Saturday, April 20, from 9 AM–11 AM in the Fellowship Hall. The northwest doors that lead into the Fellowship Hall will be unlocked.

The LWR Spring Ingathering will be at Our Redeemers' Lutheran on May 3/4. If you can spare a couple of hours, we are open 8 AM –2 PM Friday, and 8 AM–11:30 AM Saturday. We can always use a few more people to move boxes from the delivery vehicles to the containers, or to work inside the containers.

—Rich Mathes

Social Action Updates

At the Social Action meeting last month, we recommended to Council that Lenten plate offerings (usually around $1,500-$2,000) be donated to Lutheran Community Services for immigrant and refugee assistance.

We have committed to providing dinners for 40 youth at New Horizons Ministries on the 5th Fridays of the year. Those dates are 3/29, 5/31, 8/30 and 11/29. The full meal on 3/29 is covered. There is a need for helpers to provide and deliver the full meal on 5/31, and sides (a healthy bread/roll, dessert and possibly side veggie (or fresh fruit)) for the August and November dinners. Let Jim Margard know if you can help out!

We have not volunteered to do the actual serving (unless someone is interested) because they serve late on Friday—9:00 PM. If anyone specifically wants to serve meals to their youth, let Jim know and we can make it happen, preparing and serving simple healthy breakfasts on dates that work for you.

New Horizons is progressing well! They recently had a drive to raise $80,000 to construct five additional small private bedrooms, giving up some of their office space to make room. They have raised more than needed.

Queen Anne Helpline is planning the return of their annual Run for Home fundraiser this spring, tentatively set for Saturday, June 15. Plans are for it to start and end at QALC! If there is a need, and QALC interest, we might look into possibly providing a water/Gatorade station at the mid-point of the run.

—Jim Margard

LWR 2024 Spring Ingathering Kit Supply Needs:

1. We need 70 more bath towels for our LWR Personal Care Kits. LWR specifications are "ONE light-weight bath-size towel (between 20" x 40" and 52" x 27"), dark colors recommended." Many of the kits go to people in refugee camps or places without washers (or dryers), so darker colors are preferred. Also, "light-weight" is important, because most recipients will air-dry their bath towels outside in sometimes-humid locations. Our heavy, plush bath-towels sold in the US are not what is needed in places without washers and dryers.
 - Target has dark gray bath-towels (52" x 26") for $3.00 under the name "Room Essentials." If you get them delivered, order 12 and shipping is free. However, you can only order 10 dark gray; I fill in with light gray.
 - Amazon has "spa towels" that are 20" x 40", 100% cotton, but cost $3.80-$4.00.
 - Carol Ann has found 30" x 52" bath towels at Big Lots. Price is $4, but she noted that if you shop at Big Lots often, you may have discounts that bring the towels down below $3.
2. We also need 150 4 oz (NOT 3.5 or 3.0 oz) bars of Ivory Soap. They cost from 75 cents to $1 per bar, in packs of 4 or 10, usually. The kits need to include at least 8 oz, so three 3 oz bars would be needed if we packed the smaller ones.
3. The other Personal Care Kit items are purchased in bulk, so if you want to contribute funds to offset those costs, please write check to "QALC Women—LWR kits" in your Sunday offering (or specify "QALC Women —LWR Kits" if you use PayPal).

Re: School Kits—we try to purchase items from July to September when Fred Meyer, Walmart, etc. have their "back to school specials." We should have enough supplies for our spring 2024 School Kits.

—Rich Mathes

FORUMS IN FEBRUARY AND MARCH

FOR GOD SO LOVED THE WORLD?

— A four-part series about evolution, nature, and suffering

Suffering in Nature, or Why do Bad Things Happen to Good Amoebas?

Dr. Eric Long • 3/03

In Scripture, we read that creation is good and that God loves the world. When we look at the natural world, though, we see not just the beauty of creation but also “nature red in tooth and claw.” Is creaturely suffering and death attributable to sin, or is this violence an inherent part of God's good creation? How are we, as caretakers of the earth, called to respond to creaturely suffering and death? In this forum we'll examine how theologians (and ecologists!) have wrestled with these questions.

Eric Long came to SPU from Pennsylvania, where he was born, raised, and went to graduate school, studying wildlife ecology at Penn State University. At SPU, Dr. Long teaches upper-division courses in ecology and biology, including leading excursions to Belize and the Galapagos Islands. His current research focuses on population ecology of black-tailed deer on Blakely Island, WA. He was elected by the SPU student body as Professor of the Year in 2009.

Suffering and God, or Can God Suffer and to What End?

Pastor Dan Peterson • 3/10

For over 1500 years, “official” church doctrine stipulated that God cannot suffer. Theologians led the way until seeds of a new perspective emerged in Martin Luther's theology of the cross. Pastor Dan will discuss the implications of affirming that God can suffer, for personal faith as well as planetary crisis.

For God So Loved the World?

QALC WOMEN'S MINISTRY

QALC Women's Ministry

This month will be the third in our series of Gather Magazine's Bible study series, Scripture and Nature: Teachers of Faith. Our nature theme this month is RIVERS: "Shall We Gather at the River;" "The River Jordan is Deep and Wide"—there are many hymns that we sing that allude to rivers.

"When we as Christians think of rivers, we often think of baptism. Jesus was baptized in a river, as were countless saints before us." — Gather Magazine.

Come join our circles as we discuss water and Baptism. Watch the video supplement here.

[<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=LskMOsOJ0y4&t=20s>]

The Evening Circle meets on Tuesday, March 19 at 7 PM via Zoom—or join us in person in the church library. For more information contact Candy Mathes or Barb Bach.

It seems like a long time ago, but it was only this past month that we (39 people) came together for a fabulous Lenten Brunch and time of meditation with Dr. Lynn Hofstad.. Approximately $700.00 was collected to further QALC Women Ministries (including offering sent to the NW Synod) as well as supporting CORE Tanzania (see next page).

Sewing and Service continues to meet on Wednesday mornings in the Fireside Room at 10 AM until around 12:30 PM.

Early Arrival: PDQs meet on the 2nd Monday, usually arriving at 5 PM. But this month on March 11, PDQs will start at 1 PM and be joined by Pastor Kristi and some of the Church of Steadfast Love members. A light dinner will be provided. PDQs will come in as they get off work and we will continue until 8 PM. Come join us as we make quilts for LWR!

CORE TANZANIA UPDATE

The start of the school year is always an exciting time, but the beginning of this year has been especially exciting at Twegashe School!

We are now fully moved-in to the new Phase 2 classroom building – thank you to all our wonderful donors for making this happen! Third graders like Monica are pleased to now be in the “big kids” building with the fourth graders, who have already begun planting flowers along the new Phase 2 corridor. Teachers are pleased to have more office space now that administrators have moved into the new admin block, and they’re happy to have their own dedicated space in that admin block for their weekly staff meetings instead of having to meet in the cafeteria or in a classroom. The new library isn’t stocked with shelves and books yet, but it’s great to have this extra gathering space for parent meetings and for group activities like chorus.

Speaking of chorus, we’ve made some exciting changes to our end-of-the-day Activity Period schedule.

Tuesday is still the day for music, but now ALL students can participate. First and second graders meet in the library with Madam Aneth, and the older students sing in the cafeteria with Madam Jeniva. This allows the teachers to teach age-appropriate songs to both groups. On Wednesday students do agriculture as before, but this year Mr. Salim has signed on to direct them. Environment club still meets on Thursday, but we’ve added two other club options that day – chess and debate. Mr. Mwita is just learning to play chess, but he was eager to have a group of students learn with him. Mr. Phineas is leading the debate club for interested third and fourth graders. You might think that the idea of debating in English would be intimidating to these young students, but turnout was high – lots of students are eager to give it a try!

Youth Bake Sale Thanks

The March 3 Bake Sale hosted by the QALC Youth Group raised an amazing $668. The proceeds from donations will be split between New Horizons Ministry and Queen Anne Helpline. We extend thanks to the youth, their families for supporting their service, Amy Castle for help shepherding the sale, all those who contributed baked goods, and the many generous souls who contributed to the cause.

YOUTH MINISTRY

Project Phoenix

Besides the Scavenger Hunt on March 17 noted at left, families with middle school and high school youth can mark their calendars for the following Project Phoenix event dates, Sundays at 4 PM, with details yet to come:

April 28, 4-6 PM • June 02, 4-6 PM

OTHER THANKSGIVINGS

Pick-Up Choir

Thank you to all those who sang in our February 18 "Pick-Up Choir," an opportunity offered a few times each year by Cantor Kyle. It's a great way to try choir for a day and to contribute to our worship.

Jan Sorensen Memorial

To all those at Queen Anne Lutheran, seen and unseen, who participated in Jan Sorensen's memorial service, your thoughtfulness meant so very much. My entire family is so appreciative of singers, bakers, buyers and organizers who helped make our mom's service and reception so welcoming, warm and meaningful. Jan would have been so pleased. Thank you!

Fondly,
Joan Sorensen Rice

On Sharing and Receiving Prayer Requests

Do you have a prayer request? Write your request on a blue pew card during worship, and place it in the offering plate or give it to the pastor. You may also contact Pastor Dan or the church office to leave a prayer request. When we receive a prayer request, it is helpful to know if you would like this prayer to be included during Sunday worship in the weeks following, and/or if you would like the request sent out to the church e-mail Prayer Chain.^{*} Pastor Dan can reach out to you when he sees your request, and we will not make a request public unless you ask to do so.

Please help us keep prayer requests up to date. We realize some hardships are ongoing, and renewing a request for prayer in such a case is supported. You can renew or discontinue requests by contacting Pastor Dan or the office.

Please obtain permission from the person concerned before publishing his or her name.

What Is the Prayer Chain? It is simply an e-mail group of members who have asked to receive prayer requests, so that they may each include them in their personal prayers at home, and keep apprised of members who have hardships. If you would like to become part of our Prayer Chain, simply call or email the church office.

Regular, Automatic Giving Is a Good Gift!

Please consider enrolling in QALC's "Simply Giving" EFT program. This provides a simple, hassle-free and secure way for you to make automatic donations to QALC from your checking or savings account. Giving in this way helps the church by ensuring that your offering is received even when you cannot make your donation in person. Giving in this way also helps ensure a steady income for the church over the course of the year. Enrollment forms are available on a clipboard on the railing in the narthex. For further details about the Simply Giving options, please speak with Jacqui Darroch, who administers the program for us, or Sallie Wilson, our Financial Secretary.

For a one-time or ongoing gift use the QR Code at left, which links to our website's GIVE page.

Office & Staff Hours:

Barb Bash opens the office from 9 AM to 5:30 PM Tuesday through Friday.
